TITLE: Institutional Duty Officer

AUTHORITY:

Policy CD-031200

PROCEDURE:

A. Duty Officer:

A management staff member will be designated to assist the shift commander of the facilities during non-duty hours.

B. Minimum Training Requirements for Duty Officer:

- 1. Be familiar with Departmental Policy with emphasis on Emergency Preparedness and Security Policies and Procedures;
- 2. Be familiar with Institutional Policy;
- 3. Have attended the Emergency Preparedness Training;
- 4. Be familiar with basic radio communication;
- 5. Be familiar with Post Orders on Transport/Hospital; and
- 6. Receive eight (8) hours of on-the-job duty officer training. The Deputy Warden of Administrative Services will implement a training schedule for newly assigned Duty Officers.

C. Tour of Duty:

- 1. Tour of duty will commence on Monday at 8:00 a.m. and continue until 8:00 a.m. the following Monday. During this period of time the Duty Officer will report to work at 8:00 a.m. Monday thru Friday.
- 2. The Duty Officer will also conduct a four (4) hour tour of the facilities (activities/operations) on each Saturday, Sunday and any holidays. To compensate for working the previous Saturday and Sunday the Duty Officer will have the following Friday off in addition to the normal Saturday and Sunday.

3. Additional compensation may be given for working holidays. The Duty Officer will be available and on-call during other non-duty hours. The Duty Officer may trade duty weeks by mutual agreement and with the concurrence of the Warden.

D. General Responsibilities:

- 1. The Duty Officer will be responsible for monitoring and assisting the shift commander during his/her tour of duty. The Duty Officer will set a schedule flexible enough to accomplish normal supervisory responsibilities.
- 2. During the tour of duty and non-duty hours, the Duty Officer will be on call and available to respond immediately if a major emergency occurs. On Saturday and Sunday he/she will be required to visit and observe institutional activities, to include but not limited to housing units, segregation, food service, visiting room, vehicle patrols, towers, traffic control and housing unit control centers.
- 3. The Duty Officer will be on-call and may be called to the facility at any time should the need arise. It is imperative that there is NO consumption of any alcoholic beverages during this period.
- 4. The Duty Officer will be notified by the Shift Supervisor when unusual situations arise as necessary. The Duty Officer and/or shift commander will determine if notification of other staff members is necessary. In emergency situations he/she will consult with the appropriate staff members.
- 5. The Duty Officer will review placements of administrative segregation, pre-hearing detention and recommend continued placement or release. The Duty Officer will only conduct these reviews when weekends are in conjunction with holidays and is necessary to ensure reviews are conducted within 72 hours of the inmate's placement.
- 6. The Duty Officer not having an assigned vehicle will be issued a vehicle for use. Vehicles will be used for OFFICIAL BUSINESS ONLY.
- 7. The Duty Officer will be required to advise Master Control when not available at a home phone and also of a location where The Duty Officer may be reached should the Duty Officer be needed at the facility.
- 8. In conjunction with the shift supervisor, the Duty Officer will oversee the entire operation of the institution during non-regular hours of duty.
